Department of Japanese and Language and Culture Curriculum (Applicable for Academic Year 114)

Field A (Linguistics, Japanese Education) Field B (Literature, History and Culture)

Study of Lexis and Grammar of Japanese (2) Research Methods in Linguistics (2) Japanese Language Education (2) Grammar of Ancient Japanese Literature (3) Corpus and Japanese Research (2)

Seminar in Japanese and Chinese Linguistics (2)

Discourse Analysis of Japanese (3)

Seminar in Japanese Sociolinguistic (2)

Studies of Japanese Syntax (2)

Studies of Japanese Grammar (2)

Lexicogrammar of Japanese (2)

1. All courses are elective. Students must complete a minimum of 28 credits and submit a thesis in order to graduate.

- 2. Out of the total graduation credits, up to 7 credits may be earned from graduate-level courses offered by other departments, subject to approval and counted toward graduation.
- 3. Inter-university courses may be counted toward graduation credits only with departmental approval.
- 4. Graduate students in each academic cluster must complete at least 14 credits of relevant courses within their cluster before submitting their thesis.

Grammar of Ancient Japanese Literature (3)

Appreciation of the Japanese Classical Poems (2)

Japanese Mythology and Culture (2)

A Study of Manyoshu's Songs and Legends (2)

Studies of Japanese Thoughts (2)

Research on East Asian Literature and Thought (2)

Seminar in Modern Japanese Literature (2)

Japanese Anime/Manga Studies (2)

Studies of Japanese Consumer Culture (2)

Special Topics on Japanese Colonial Empire (2)

Seminar in Modern Japanese History of Political and Diplomatic (2)

The Formation and Development of Modern Japan (2)

Exploration of Japanese classical literature and culture from visual

Graduation

Further Studies:

Advanced studies at research institutes in Taiwan and overseas

Career Opportunities:

- 1. Professional positions in the business and finance sectors
- 2. Careers in journalism and mass communication, tourism and tour guiding, translation and editing, diplomacy
- 3. Japanese language teaching positions