

Department of Japanese Master's Program Curriculum Map (Applicable to Students Admitted from Academic Year 115)

Group A (Linguistics and Japanese Language Education)

Research in Japanese Linguistics (2 credits)
Research in Japanese Grammar (2 credits)
Studies in Japanese Vocabulary and Grammar (2 credits)
Classical Japanese Grammar (2 credits)
Research in Japanese Language Education (2 credits)
★Linguistic Theory and Practice (2 credits)
Corpora and Japanese Linguistics Research (2 credits)
Seminar on Chinese and Japanese Linguistic Research (2 credits)
Research in Japanese Discourse Analysis (2 credits)
Research in Japanese Sociolinguistics (2 credits)
Research Methods and Guidance (Linguistics Group) (2 credits)

1. All courses are elective; students must complete a minimum of 28 credits and submit a thesis to graduate.
2. Out of the total graduation credits, up to 7 credits may be taken from equivalent-level courses open outside the department's Master's program and counted towards graduation.
3. Inter-university courses must be approved by the department to be counted towards graduation credits.
4. Graduate students in each group must complete at least 14 credits of courses related to their respective group before

Department of Japanese Master's Program

Group B (Literature, History and Culture)

Classical Japanese Grammar (2 credits)
Research in Japanese Waka Poetry (2 credits)
Japanese Mythology and Culture (2 credits)
Man'yoshu Poetry and Japanese Culture (2 credits)
Research in Japanese Thought (2 credits)
Studies in East Asian Literary Thought (2 credits)
Research in Modern and Contemporary Japanese Literature (2 credits)
Studies in Japanese Anime and Manga (2 credits)
Studies in Japanese Consumer Culture (2 credits)
Special Topics on the Japanese Colonial Empire (2 credits)
Special Topics in Modern Japanese Political and Diplomatic History (2 credits)
The Formation and Development of Modern Japan (2 credits)
Classical Japanese Literature and Culture in Visual Media (2 credits)
Research Methods and Guidance (Cultural Studies Group) (2 credits)

Graduation

Further Studies: Graduate students in each group must complete at least 14 credits of courses related to their respective group before submitting their degree thesis.

Careers:

1. Business and finance industry professionals at home and abroad (mainly Taiwanese enterprises with close trade relations with Japan, as well as Japanese companies).
2. Professionals in journalism and media, tourism and guiding, translation and editing, diplomacy, or other public services.
3. Japanese language teaching personnel at universities, high schools, vocational schools, and language institutes.